Pete the Cat

Hat

Materials:

- Blue, yellow, black, and white paper
- Scissors
- Glue
- Black Marker
- Stapler (optional)

Instructions:

- Cut the blue paper into two, 2 inch wide strips along the longest side of the paper
- Cut out two triangles for the ears from the left over blue paper
- Cut out two eye shapes from the yellow paper
- Cut out a small triangle nose and two pupil shapes out of the white paper
- Cut out thin strips of black paper for the whiskers, or use a black marker to draw them in
- Glue Pete's face onto the middle section of one of the large blue strips of paper
- Make a headband using the two blue strips of paper by measuring them to fit around your head and attach them in a circle with glue or a stapler

Guitar

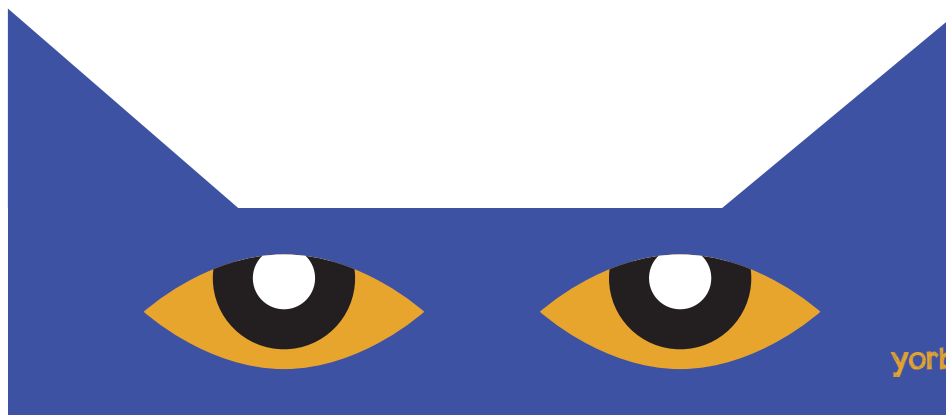

image from craftsbycourtney.com

Materials:

- Empty box: cereal, tissue, shoe, or shipping
- Scissors
- Cardboard Tube
- Rubber Bands
- Tape

Instructions:

- Cut a hole in one side of your box (generally this will be on the largest side of the box, and if you are using a tissue box, the hole is already there!)
- Stretch the rubber bands around the length of the box over the hole
- Slide the paper tube into the top of the box creating the guitar neck. This may require cutting another small hole. Tape the tube into place.
- Experiment with the sounds you can make and have fun creating new songs

Paint Walk

Materials:

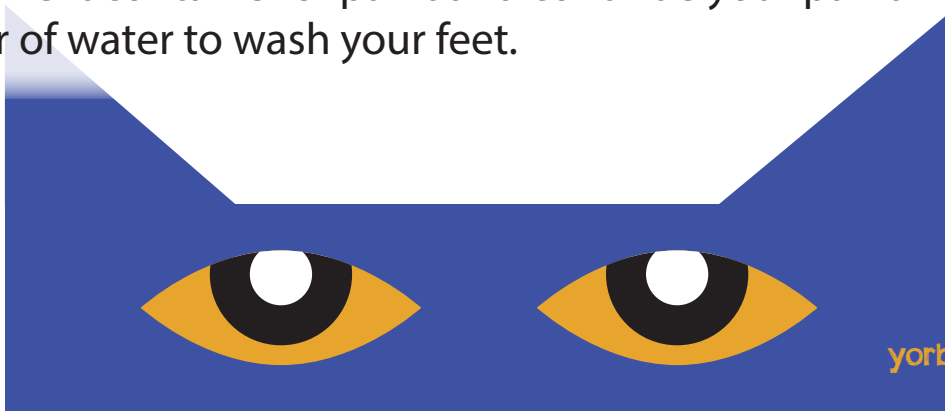

- Red, Blue, and Yellow or Brown Washable Tempura Paint
- Roll of white butcher paper or individual sheets of white paper and a paint tarp
- Four containers big enough to put your feet in (Disposable baking pans work great)
- Water

Instructions:

- Outside, roll out the butcher paper or put down the paint tarp and line up the white pieces of paper
- Fill one container with blue paint, one with red, one with brown (you can make your own brown paint by mixing red, blue and yellow paint), and one with water
- Place the containers on the paper, start with the red container of paint at the beginning, then leave a space large enough to take a few steps, then place the blue container of paint, a space, the brown, a space, and finally the water
- Place your bare feet in the container of red paint, carefully step onto the paper and walk to the next container of paint and continue your paint walk until you get to the container of water to wash your feet.

Fish Watching

Pete the Cat has a pet fish. Fish bowls and aquariums are fun to watch, especially if they are full of unique fish. To watch a live feed of real fish and other aquatic animals, go to <https://www.montereybayaquarium.org/animals/live-cams>. There you can find the coral reef cam, the jelly cam, the shark cam, and many others. (Please note, some of the cams are only available during daytime business hours.)

Button Toss

image from survivingteacherssalary.com

Materials:

- Paper plates or large, thick, paper circles
- Paint, markers, or crayons
- Hole punch or pencil, yarn, and tape

Instructions:

- Color/paint the paper plates or paper circles a color or pattern of your choice. These will be the base of your buttons
- Punch four holes near the center of each paper button either with a hole punch or a pencil
- Thread your yarn through the button holes to create a nice "x" pattern (note: to easily thread the yarn through the button holes, wrap a small piece of tape around one end of the yarn)
- Once your buttons are complete, you will need to make a target on the floor. Using tape, mark out a box on the floor. Several paces away use tape to mark a throwing line.
- Stand behind the throwing line and toss your buttons into the square
